Second Crop of Corn.

Waurika, Okla., July 19.—From a thirty-acre tract of corn, J. D. Huffman, a prosperous farmer residing near here, has gathered fifty bushels to the acre. The corn was planted January 15 and was sufficiently matured for gathering two weeks ago. Mr. Huffman is now planting a second crop on the same land. The indications for another fifty-bushel yield are good.

MUSKOGEE CELEBRATION

COMMEMORATE REMOVAL OF RESTRICTIONS FROM LANDS OF INDIANS.

Beginning today Muskogee will put on her glad rags, with a six-day celebration commemorating the removal of restrictions from the lands of the Indians in the eastern part of the state. The Indian restriction bill passed by congress becomes effective July 27, one week later.

Monday, July 20, the first day there will be devoted to welcoming the "City of Muskogee," which will have completed a water trip from Cincinnati to Muskogee, thus demonstrating that the Arkansas river is navigable at least to Muskogee. The following day will be devoted to local features and a merchants' parade. Wednesday has been designated Oklahoma Day. The program contemplates an address from Gov. Haskell, W. H. Andrews of New Mexico, J. B. Chase, president of the Trans-Mississippi Congress, and Lee Cruise of Ardmore. On Thursday and Friday speeches will be heard from the Oklahoma congressional delegation, while Saturday will terminate the celebration with a program in charge of the United Commercial Travelers.

FRUIT GROWERS MEET

WILL SEND ASSOCIATION MAN TO ST. LOUIS TO HANDLE FRUIT CROP.

Walter Colbert has returned from Oklahoma City where he attended the Oklahoma State Fruit Growers' association. He says the general report is that the fruit yield is good. The association has arranged to market the fruit in St. Louis. Ed E. Blake, general manager of the association, living at Enid, will go to St. Louis and handle the fruit crop. This arrangement will do away with the necessity of selling through some commission firm. Two buyers of fruit will also be located in Oklahoma City during the season. Mr. Colbert is greatly pleased with the work of the association and he and others from this section will co-operate with the organization.

County Court in Session.

Judge I. R. Mason convened county court this morning, and the court will remain in session the balance of the month. Motions are being heard today and no jury cases will be tried this term. An appeal from Judge Winfrey's court was refused this morning and the justice was ordered to carry out the judgment of his court. This was a case in which Billie Wilson had filed suit against W. F. Gilmer for some furniture which the former proprietor of the Vienna cafe had leased or purchased from Wilson and which had been left in the cafe owned by Gilmer.

A CLEAR LOSS OF OVER FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS

A clear loss of five thousand dollars on one fruit crop is the misfortune of Dr. Walter Hardy of this city. Dr. Hardy has a very fine fruit farm located near Ardmore. He has nearly 1,000 bushels of peaches today that are too ripe to ship. A Mr. Blake, who resides at Enid, had contracted for the output. He arrived here yesterday, with his pickers, baskets and crates, ready to gather and ship, but upon a close examination of the fruit this morning he decided that it was too ripe and refused to accept the crop. Mr. Blake, who is an experienced fruit grower, made the remark that Dr. Hardy has lost $5,000 on his fruit this year. Dr. Hardy himself is a very busy doctor and earlier in the season he made a deal to dispose of his fruit, but was disappointed by his party to the contract. He now has a very large loss. The fruit he has on the trees now he says cannot be profitably sold on the local market and his fruit is a clear loss.

BRYAN HAS BANNER

NEBRASKAN ACKNOWLEDGES RECEIPT OF FLAG—TERMS IT A TREASURED SOUVENIR.

The following letter received from the great commoner is self-explanatory, and is given here in full:

Lincoln, Neb., July 16, 1908.

Mr. Sidney Sugars, Ardmore, Okla.

My Dear Mr. Sugars:

I have just received the Ardmore banner and hasten to thank you for it. We have given it a place in our house, and it will be, from this time forth, one of our treasured souvenirs.

Hoping that we may have a good many Oklahomans here to share with us the pleasure of seeing it in our home, I am

Very truly yours,

W. J. BRYAN.

JOHN H. MORGAN CAMP.

Old Soldiers Assemble and Tell of Occurrences in the 60's.

The Confederate Veterans held their regular meeting yesterday in the Broadway Baptist church.

"Jesus, Lover of My Soul," was sung by all present and the 146th Psalm was read by Dr. Wayne and the same minister invoked divine blessings.

Those assigned places on the program failed to attend and the most entertaining feature of the meeting was brief talks by the soldiers.

J. T. Adams of the 4th Alabama Infantry, made application for membership and was accepted.

The adjutant was instructed to write to General Hargis at Ada and express the thanks of the camp to him for his invitation to visit the Brigade Reunion to be held at Ada the latter part of this month.

The State Reunion, which is to be held in Sulphur the early part of August was discussed. Every member of John H. Morgan camp was instructed to attend as a delegate. The camp will be given its vote at the reunion and will be cast by those in attendance.

Some very interesting talks were made by Ed Barnitt and Major Rumph. Col. Barnitt took up the story of a soldier who fell at the battle of Franklin. The soldier marched into battle with a leave of absence in his pocket. En route to the firing line he said he never expected to leave the line alive and in as much as the south seemed then to be defeated the soldier said he cared but little about the future and true to his premonitions he fell in battle.

Major Rumph dealt with the officers of the Confederacy, compared them to other generals of other countries and eulogized the fighting blood of Dixie. Some stories were told of two Irish and the major said the sons of Erin had fought for the freedom of every country except their own. A story of the sons of Erin as told by Bob Taylor was referred to. Comrade Sheppard, who perhaps bears more scars than any other man who survived the war and the reconstruction period, promised the camp he would address them in the near future.

Commander Wood promised the camp that during the week he would make the appointments of sponsor and maid of honor for the reunion at Sulphur and would give the names to the press.

The meeting next Sunday will be held at 3:30 in the Christian church.

Carter County Medics.

The Carter County Medical society will meet here in the K. of P. hall Tuesday morning, July 28. The day will be divided into three sessions, morning, evening and night. The program suggests that the day will be a very busy one and a very important one for those who attend. A general invitation to the profession has been extended.

I will sell you a good home on reasonable terms.

CROPS IN GENERAL

ALFALFA NOT GOOD—PRAIRIE HAY IS FINE AND COTTON IS LOOKING UP.

The crop situation is being generally discussed now and the people are encouraged more over the prospect of a good yield than earlier in the season.

Mr. Bamberger says that cotton will make about as good a yield as it did last year. The recent rains, in his opinion, were not needed by the crop.

Arthur Walcott says the hay crop is very fine and is selling for about $6 per ton.

Walter Colbert says his alfalfa hay is poor for the reason that he pastured his meadow too heavily. The T. N. Coleman alfalfa is also said to be poor. It needed to be mowed more frequently to keep down the weeds.

Lee Stewart, who is here today from Foster, says crops look good in his part of the country. The crops are better at Foster than in the section of country between here and there.

The general opinion with reference to the alfalfa crop is that too much rain fell in the early spring.

APPOINTED SPONSOR.

Miss Geraldine Moorman and Miss Ethel Lawson Represent Vets.

Miss Jessica Geraldine Moorman and Miss Ethel Lawson have been appointed by Capt. W. R. Wood, commander of John H. Morgan Camp No. 107, United Confederate Veterans, to attend the state reunion of veterans at Sulphur August 10, 11 and 12, as sponsor and maid of honor, respectively. The appointment of these young ladies will meet with the hearty approval of the camp. Miss Moorman is an Alabama girl whose father was in the Confederate service. She has been a faithful worker with the camp and is held in very high regard by the local veterans.

Miss Ethel Lawson is an Ardmore girl. She has been reared here and her late father was not only a soldier of the south, but he was one of the best pioneer citizens Indian Territory had within her bounds.

Rooms at the Artesian will be engaged for the two young ladies and their expenses borne by the local camp.

Card of Thanks.

We take this method of expressing to our neighbors and friends our most profound gratitude for the kindly services they have rendered us in the recent illness of our daughter, Pearl. Such marks of esteem and unaffected sympathy rob sorrowing anxiety of much of its burden and makes life worth living.

To the doctors and nurse, who have so tenderly and successfully nursed her back to life and to us, we feel most profoundly grateful.

To all we are happy to state that she has almost completely recovered her former health and girlish happiness. With gratitude to all.

Johnson for Bryan.

At Tulsa, Saturday, Governor John A. Johnson of Minnesota is quoted as saying, "I am confident Bryan will be elected this fall, I will work as hard as any one to make his election certain. I was urged to make the race against him for presidential nomination rather against my will. My telegram of congratulations was the first to reach him. Our national committee in Minnesota will spend more money and work harder for Bryan's election than any other committee in the country and we are going to try to swing Minnesota into the Bryan column."

Governor Johnson lectured at the Tulsa Chautauqua. While there he was the guest of Democratic National Committeeman W. T. Brady. He was tendered an informal reception at the Brady Hotel, given by many prominent democrats, after the lecture.
